Sub: Criminal Justice - Cases under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1952 - Conduct of Prosecution - Instructions.

Under section 6(1) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, the Government have appointed Special Judges for the trial of offences falling under that section and the senior most Assistant Session Judges in the districts of Bellary, Chingleput, Coimbatore, Tiruchirapalli and Krishna are functioning now as Special Judges. A question has arisen as to the prosecuting Agency that should conduct the prosecution before the Special Courts.

The Collectors of Bellary, Chingleput, Coimbatore, Tiruchirapalli and Krishna are informed that the prosecution of the non-Special Police Establishment cases, investigated by the State Police, coming before the Special Courts referred to in para 1 above should be conducted by the Public Prosecutors of the district concerned where the court is situated.
